Prelude and the Lighting of the Christ Candle
“Bring Forth the Kingdom” Mary Hagan arr. Shazia Ali

Welcome and Greeting Rev. Dan Schumacher

Call to Worship Psalm 139:1-6, 13-18 (NRSV) Savannah Heath
O Lord, you have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away.
You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.
Even before a word is on my tongue, O Lord, you know it completely.
You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.
For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother’s womb.
I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.
My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret,
intricately woven in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes beheld my unformed substance.
In your book were written all the days that were formed for me,
when none of them as yet existed.
How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!
I try to count them—they are more than the sand; I come to the end—I am still with you.

Invocation and the Lord’s Prayer Pastor Katie Hambrick
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Hymn #295 “Come Thou Fount”

Scripture Reading 1 Samuel 3:1-10 (NRSV) Myra Cobb
Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread. At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, “Samuel! Samuel!” and he said, “Here I am!” and ran to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call; lie down again.” So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, “Samuel!” Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, my son; lie down again.” Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, ‘Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place. Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”

Benediction Rev. Dan Schumacher

“Let us go forth from this time,
striving to know all of our brothers and sisters
in the same way as God does...
the God to whom, in both life and death, we belong.
May we see and celebrate the gifts of all.
And may we watch with wonder at how God weaves all of our gifts into the tapestry of God’s one kingdom.”

Amen. — adapted from a benediction by Terry Chaney

Call for Meals for Family Promise IHN Families

The Family Promise of Colorado Springs Interfaith Hospitality Network’s (IHN) Host Weeks at FBC will continue to look different into 2021. In the past FBC would welcome four families into the building for the week, where they would stay overnight and be provided with three meals.

This January FBC will not be hosting in person, but will still have the opportunity to support our ministry partner and the four families they serve. During the week of January 31- February 5 the families will be housed by Family Promise and FBC volunteers are needed each evening to prepare dinner and make a no-contact delivery.

Please consider how you might support FBC’s first Host Week of 2021. If interested please contact Myra Cobb or Linda Hutchison.
