Welcome and Greeting

Rev. Dan Schumacher

Call to Worship Psalm 111 (NRSV) James Dockum

Praise the Lord! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.
Great are the works of the Lord, studied by all who delight in them.
Full of honor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.
He has gained renown by his wonderful deeds; the Lord is gracious and merciful.
He provides food for those who fear him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.
He has shown his people the power of his works,
in giving them the heritage of the nations.
The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy.
They are established forever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.
He sent redemption to his people;
he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name.
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever.

Invocation and the Lord’s Prayer Pastor Katie Hambrick

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading Mark 1:21:28 (NRSV) Lilly Martinez
They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Benediction Rev. Dan Schumacher

“Christ be with us, Christ within us,
Christ behind us, Christ before us,
Christ beside us, Christ to win us,
Christ to comfort and restore us,
Christ beneath us, Christ above us,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love us,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.”

Photos for Transfiguration Sunday

At FBC on Transfiguration Sunday, candles are given out and at the close of the service everyone circles around the sanctuary as we pass the light of Christ to one another.

This year we need your assistance to create the circle, virtually. At the Christmas Eve service you received a candle and now we ask that you please take a photo/selfie of you with the candle to be included in the February 14 service. If you would like to participate but did not receive a candle, you may pick one up in the office.

Please send your photo to Pastor Dan at pastor@firstbaptist-cs.org by February 6.
