Welcome and Greeting

Rev. Dan Schumacher

Call to Worship

Psalms 147:1-11, 20c (NRSV) Paul Petta

Praise the Lord!
How good it is to sing praises to our God;
for he is gracious, and a song of praise is fitting.
The Lord builds up Jerusalem;
he gathers the outcasts of Israel.
He heals the broken-hearted,
and binds up their wounds.
He determines the number of the stars;
he gives to all of them their names.
Great is our Lord, and abundant in power;
his understanding is beyond measure.
The Lord lifts up the downtrodden;
he casts the wicked to the ground.

Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving;
make melody to our God on the lyre.
He covers the heavens with clouds,
prepares rain for the earth,
makes grass grow on the hills.
He gives to the animals their food,
and to the young ravens when they cry.
His delight is not in the strength of the horse,
nor his pleasure in the speed of a runner;
but the Lord takes pleasure in those who fear him,
in those who hope in his steadfast love.
Praise the Lord!

Invocation and the Lord’s Prayer

Pastor Katie Hambrick

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Mark 1:29-39 (NRSV)

Lilly Martinez

As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them. That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, “Everyone is searching for you.” He answered, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do.” And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Benediction

Rev. Dan Schumacher

“While our worship is now ending,
our service in and to the world is about to begin again.
As you go, remember: it is by the goodness of God
that you have been brought into this world;
it is by the grace of God
that you have been kept all the day long, even unto this hour;
and it is by the mercy of God,
fully revealed in the face of Jesus Christ,
that you are being redeemed.”

Amen.

Feb. 21: In-Person Worship and Family Programming

The Old Testament scripture passages from the lectionary for Lent are filled with moments when God made extravagant promises to God's people. On Sunday, Feb. 21, we will celebrate one such promise -- the moment when God hung the "bow" in the sky, signaling a new day for God's people (Gen. 9:8-17). It's a fitting passage for us as we reconvene in-person worship and look to a new day!

Please watch for further information (e.g., reminders on how to keep each other safe), but we hope you'll mark your calendars and begin praying now for our first Sunday back in-person!

Doors open: 10:10 AM

Worship: 10:30-11:15 AM

Programming:

- Children (K-5th grade) will meet in the Godly Play Room.
- Youth (6th-12th grade) will meet in the youth area.
- Parents will meet in the Hurlburt Room.

If you're not quite ready for in-person gatherings, we will offer a livestream of the service.*
