

191 O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

1. O sa - cred Head, now wound - ed, with grief and shame weighed down,
 2. What Thou, my Lord, hast suf - fered was all for sin - ners' gain:
 3. What lan - guage shall I bor - row to thank Thee, dear - est Friend, now scorn - ful - ly sur - round - ed with thorns, Thine on - ly crown;

 mine, mine was the trans - gres - sion, but Thine the dead - ly pain.
 for this, Thy dy - ing sor - row, Thy pit - y with - out end?

how pale Thou art with an - guish, with sore a - buse and scorn!
 Lo, here I fall, my Sav - ior! 'Tis I de - serve Thy place;
 O make me Thine for - ev - er, and should I faint - ing be,

How does that vis - age lan - guish which once was bright as morn!
 look on me with Thy fa - vor, and grant to me Thy grace.
 Lord, let me nev - er, nev - er out - live my love to Thee.

WORDS: Paul Gerhardt, 1656, based on a Medieval Latin poem;
 tr. James W. Alexander, 1830, alt.

MUSIC: Hans Leo Hassler, 1601; harm. Johann Sebastian Bach, 1729

VIRTUAL UPDATES

Moving forward, Pastor Dan will be sharing announcements and updates on a weekly basis by Friday afternoon. Each Friday, you'll receive an email with a link to the announcement video. If you want to know what's going on with the church, be sure to check out these short video announcements each week.

CONTINUED CLOSURE THROUGH APRIL

In line with our historic sister congregations downtown and with the prevailing mandates, we will continue to be closed through the month of April. At the end of the month, we will once again evaluate how best to move forward.
